$30,000 Needed For Rain-Making

An attempt to increase rainfall over Medina Lake will be made if $30,000 can be raised by voluntary subscription.

This was decided at a meeting between the Guadalupe-Medina Flood Water Reclamation Association in San Antonio Thursday after a meeting with the Precipitation Control Company, an Arizona concern which will try to make rain by using scientific instruments.

A committee composed of Perry Yallison, chairman, Harvey Bowman, secretary, Frank Montag, treasurer and H. S. Schlemmer, business manager, was appointed.

50 Attend First Castro PTA Meeting

CASTROVILLE — The first meeting of the Castroville P.T.A. Tuesday night was attended by around 50 parents and friends of the school. Officers and committee chairmen were present and spoke of their plans for the coming year.

The association voted to install insoleums in the school cafeteria. Supt. Houser announced that the enrollment was 107 in grammar school, asked for the support of the parents in all school activities, and mentioned in particular attendance at football games. The first one scheduled with Hondo will be in October, when the grammar school and 9th grade will again.

Refreshments were served to the group in the school cafeteria following the meeting by Mrs. Mary Mueller and Mrs. V. L. Fletcher.

IRE DEPARTMENT MAKES ABOUT $1,000 ON DANCE

The Hondo Volunteer Fire Department made about $1,000 on its annual carnival and dance last Saturday night, according to President Al Hollings.

The Hondo Lions Club previously donated $500 to the fund. The B&PW is the first women's organization to offer assistance.

The Jaycees are sponsoring a football game between former Hondo all stars and Southwest Texas Junior College of Uvalde on Nov. 4 with proceeds going to the band.

Band Fund Given 40% Of Proceeds By B.&P.W. Club

The Hondo Business and Professional Women's Club Monday night adopted as its major project for the club year the promotion of the Hondo Jaycees' campaign for a school band. The group voted unanimously to donate 40 per cent of the proceeds from all its future money-raising club projects to the Jaycees for the band.

Billy Fly, president of the Hondo Junior Chamber of Commerce, was present to receive from Miss Thelma Lynch, club president, confirmation of the club's action.

The first funds to be earmarked for this purpose will be those realized from the Gay Nineties Show to be presented by the club on Sept. 27-28. Miss Ruth Lawler is director of the show which will be combination of songs, dances and skits, all in costume of that period. Casting will be completed this week, and the club women will be assisted by talent outside the club membership.

The finance committee was in charge of the monthly program. Miss Mary Ruth Cameron, chairman, presented N. P. Pope, vice-president of the Hondo National Bank, as guest speaker. He conducted a round-table discussion based on questions pertaining to the economy and financial stability of our country.

Three new members were elected by the club. Mrs. E. W. Brucks, secretary of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce, is being sponsored by Miss Anne Davis. Mrs. Beverly M. Witkind, who is employed by Fly Drug Company, is being sponsored by Miss Mary Ruth Cameron. Mrs. Ethel Hartman is sponsoring Mrs. Robert Faseler, home-making teacher of Hondo High School.

The rummage sale held on the Plaza Saturday netted the club $34.00.

Mrs. Millie Eckhart, chairman of the health and safety committee, announced that she had issued 20 certificates to local youths entitling them to receive free reflectors for their bicycles. Others who wish to secure reflectors should contact Mrs. Eckhart before October first. This project is being financed by funds received from the safety committee's recent campaign against persistent jaywalkers.

Turkey Shoot Planned By VFW

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 3891, will conduct its second annual turkey shoot on Nov. 12, just prior to the opening of hunting season, it was decided at a meeting Monday night.

Committees were appointed by Commander Emmett Nester, and they are now working on the project as well as on plans for the observance of Armistice Day.

A report of the recent department encampment was given at the meeting by Charles Baureline of LaCoste, District 11 department chief of staff. Application for membership was received from Jerome Finger.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

THIS CAR, owned by Sidney Billings and driven by Arnold Rihm, was completely wrecked late Sunday night when struck by a large trailer truck at the intersection of Highway 90 and Ave. M.

Charges were filed against the truck driver for failing to stop for the red light.

FAILURE TO STOP FOR LIGHT CAUSES AUTO-TRUCK ACCIDENT

Charges of failure to yield right-of-way were filed in justice court Monday against McKinley Wells, colored truck driver from Hempstead, who collided with an automobile driven by Arnold Rihm at the stop sign at the corner of Highway 90 and Ave. M.

Rihm was driving north on Ave. M and said he stopped for the red light. When the light turned green, he proceeded across the highway and was hit by the truck. Wells admitted that he was following another truck and did not see the light.

The car driven by Rihm belonged to his brother-in-law, Sidney Billings, and was wrecked beyond repair. The impact knocked the heavy bumper guard off of the big trailer truck.

The accident occurred just before midnight Sunday night.

Other Group Goes Friday For Physical

Thirteen men from the area served by Local Board 48 will be ordered to report for induction on Sept. 25 in the first induction call.

State selective service headquarters has announced that local board 48 must furnish 13 men for induction on Oct. 9.

George M. Dawson, Hondo member on the board, said no information was available on how many of the men would be from Medina County, and names will be withheld until the men have reported.

An additional group of men will report to the San Antonio induction center on Sept. 15 for physical examinations.

Dawson emphasized that "men in 1-A will find it wise to keep their local board record up-to-date with reference to changes in marital status, dependency, occupation, and changes of address." He said that no word had been received by the local board about other induction or examination calls.

The next meeting of the draft board will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 19. Men interested in personal appearance are requested to be present. The board meets at 9:30 A. M. Deferments for students and farmers will be considered.

Men may join the National Guard after they take their physical examination, Dawson explained, but he said that they may not join after they have received notice of induction.

Farm Bureau Slates Meeting

Texas Farm Bureau Federation will conduct a sub-district meeting in the district court room, Hondo, on Sept. 23, according to an announcement by J. Walter Hammond, Federation president.

A. D. Richardson of Floresville, state director, will preside at the meeting which will begin at 3 P. M. Other state and national Farm Bureau officials will also attend, Hammond said.

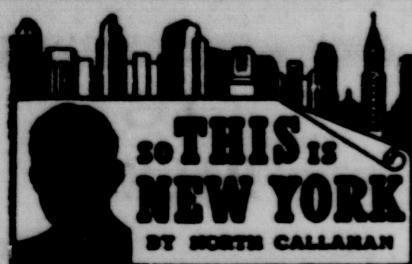

Farm Bureau policies are developed by the membership, Hammond asserted and the series of meetings has been scheduled so that state and national officials may have the benefit of the thinking of farmers and ranchers throughout the state, and at the same time for officials of the organization to give farm people more needed information on the program of the Farm Bureau, its aims and accomplishments. Every day the business of farming becomes more complicated, Hammond declared, and the need for a stronger Farm Bureau more necessary. If rural people want a democratic government, if fair prices, good roads, a fair tax program, improved educational facilities for their children, and a better rural health program, then they want a strong Farm Bureau in Texas and the Nation, he concluded.

All farmers and ranchers of the area are urged to attend the sub-district meeting.

Castro Equalization Board Announced

CASTROVILLE — Mayor A. A. Murrell, Bernard FitzSimons and Otto Naegelin will serve again on the Board of Equalization for the City of Castroville. The tax rate of $1.10 is the same as last year.

City taxes will be payable from Oct. 1 through Jan. 31, 1951, with no discounts for advance payments. Tax notices will be mailed only to persons living out-of-town.

The Empire State Building has a feather in its cap. Of course you've seen, either here or in the movies, that colorful pinnacle of bright red lights which crown this building, the tallest in the world. Now a new television aerial which extends some 50 feet above the original tip resembles a graceful feather in a woman's headpiece. So in considering the actual height of the building, one can now add this appendage to its 102 stories totaling 1250 feet above the pavement.

If you're having any trouble getting that new car, I'll tell you where you can find one. It is in a show window on East 54th Street and is a Rolls Royce, probably the finest of cars. I strolled in and asked the price — a mere $22,500, I found out to my amazement.

Curious, I looked the shiny black and silver vehicle over to see if I could find out what made it cost so much. There were no diamond or platinum parts, I learned. It even had old-fashioned lights and dashboard. But the thing is virtually hand-made and will last just about forever, I was told — and that's the price, brother, take it or leave it!

I noticed it seemed rather quiet around the fire hall on 43rd Street between 5th and 6th Avenues. So I stopped in to see what was wrong. Usually this place was a happy, noisy firemen's home. There was something wrong, all right. "Cappy," the 14-year-old Dalmatian dog-mascot, was dead. It was like losing a human member of the fire force. For years "Cappy" had ridden the big red trucks on their dashing sorties throughout the skyscrapers of Manhattan, until he had become a familiar sight. He was such a pretty spotted dog that many a national magazine advertisement had featured him as an illustration.

Why The Catholic Church Says "INVESTIGATE"

Probably not more than a handful of people hate the Catholic Church as it really is.

But many have heard anti-Catholic calumnies from sources they have been taught to respect, and have come to fear and suspect the Church as it has been falsely represented to them.

It is hardly reasonable to believe that 25 millions of Americans would remain in the Catholic Church if the rumors circulated against the Church are true. Nor would thousands of others become Catholics every year if they believed such things — without inquiring into the facts.

That is why the Catholic Church says again and again to people everywhere: "Investigate! Investigate!"

The Church makes this appeal not merely to settle an argument, nor primarily to win the good-will of the non-Catholic people, although this is a hoped-for result.

Its more important aim is to invite people to inquire into Christ's truth as taught and preserved by the Catholic Church down through the centuries. For no man, seeking the salvation of his own soul, can conscientiously discount the Catholic claim to be Christ's Church on the basis of mere rumor and slander when the truth is so readily at hand.

The Catholic Church therefore invites you to inquire into its tion — and you may have seen him and not have known who he was. But now the fire station is sad. And its members don't want another dog. For no other could quite replace "Cappy," the boys told me, and besides, they would not want to have to go through again such a sad experience as losing him has meant.

of the famous Hunter College Elementary School here, has a crew to pick about television cowboys who have "disrupted" the kiddy life of this city. The results have caused a city-wide controversy over the merits of television, some contending that it is a benefit to youngsters, others holding that television is hurting the eyes, distracting the minds and generally taking time which belongs to study and exercise. So much has the western motif taken hold, that Miss Brumbaugh was forced to conclude at a recent teachers' meeting: "The elementary school teachers of New York City no longer say 'Good morning' to their children. Instead, the greeting is 'Park your guns on my desk until 3 o'clock and take off your spurs!'"

And speaking of school, let me say a few words just to the children who are now returning to the classrooms: "Take it from us who are older — cherish every golden moment of your school days. You cannot know it now, but they are the happy time of your whole lives. It's not so much the grades you make, but the way you make them that counts. Try to learn, along with your books, how to get along with others. Aim first of all to lead a happy, normal life — then if you get to be President, fine; if not, you will be just as apt to fulfill your God-given mission on this earth."

You have to make allowances for son when he's off to college. We couldn't understand how he kept so fat, when everyone said he ate like a bird, until we discovered he ate a peck at a time.

trying to pay their accounts twice, the way their checks come in and then bounce right back again.

To do the job right, the surgeon must have the very latest inside information.

grass that Judy Nester brought.

Hill, who have conveyed their interest; Edgar St. John; the unknown heirs of Edgar St. John; Mrs. Edgar St. John, and the unknown heirs of Mrs. Edgar St. John; Defendants, whose residences are unknown.

GREETING: You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Medina County at the Court House thereof, in Hondo, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 9 day of October A. D. 1950, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 22nd day of August A. D. 1950, in this cause, numbered 4431 on the docket of said court and styled E. L. Kelley, Plaintiff, vs. Isaac E. Robinson et al, Defendants; said Defendants being those persons who are first named in this citation and to whom it is directed.

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Medina County at the Court House thereof, in Hondo, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 9 day of October A. D. 1950, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 22nd day of August A. D. 1950, in this cause, numbered 4431 on the docket of said court and styled E. L. Kelley, Plaintiff, vs. Isaac E. Robinson et al, Defendants; said Defendants being those persons who are first named in this citation and to whom it is directed.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Suit to quiet title and remove cloud from the title to the following described tract of land situated in Medina County, Texas, to-wit: 255 acres of land, more or less, out of Survey No. 445, R. Roman, being fully described by metes and bounds in Plaintiff's petition. Plaintiff in said petition represents to the Court that he is legally seized and possessed of said tract of land, holding and owning the same in fee simple.

In addition to his fee simple title, Plaintiff claims title to said land by reason of the Statutes of Limitation of Five, Ten and Twenty-five Years. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants assert certain claims and rights in and to the said land through certain deeds and other instruments found in the Deed Records of Medina County, Texas, the exact nature of which claims are unknown to Plaintiff; and Plaintiff gives notice to each of said Defendants to answer herein and set up and plead before this court the claims and rights asserted by them in and to said land. Plaintiff prays judgment for said tract of land perfecting his title thereto and removing cloud therefrom, and prays that Plaintiff be quieted in his right, title and possession in and to said land, and for general and special relief; as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Owls Play Strong

Hondo, New Braunfels Play There At 8 P.M.

The 1950 version of the Hondo Owls football team will be unveiled Friday night when the local boys meet the powerful New Braunfels Unicorns at New Braunfels.

Since the opening of school, the number of boys out for practice has been steadily increasing, and Coach Tom Bridges had 24 out this week.

Gone from last year's squad are all but two linemen, and two backs. Last season's starting tackles, Bobby McNeil and Bill Smith, and guards, Hugo and Albert Saathoff, as well as one end, Dick McWilliams, were lost. Hilmer Mueller and Wilbur Bohmfalk, in the backfield, also graduated.

The Owls will go into the Unicorns game with an average weight of 150 in the line and 155 in the backfield, a team average of 157.

The heavy Unicorns, a power-house last season, have been picked to repeat as one of the state's outstanding Class A teams. Last week they opened their season by drubbing Peacock Military Academy 51-7. The Owls are as yet untried under game conditions, although they scrimmaged against Sabinal Monday night.

Bridges announced his probable starting lineup as follows:

Ends — Harold Schweers, 155 pounds, and Billy Laughinghouse, 145.

Tackles — Lloyd Lindeburg, 185, and Edward Brucks, 160.

Guards — Douglas Bohmfalk, 165, and Johnny Graff, 150.

Center — James Wendland, 150.

Backs — blocking, Tommy Hollings, 155; wing, Roy Meyer, 145; tail, Mike Larkin, 180; and full, Bud Woolls, 140.

Others who might be included in the starting lineup are Abundio Gonzales, 140-pound back, and O. J. Williams, 150-pounder, who plays back or end.

Game time is 8 o'clock.

Keep Your Feet On The Ground

Excessive buying is gradually diminishing. With a little reflection it is easy to see why. Concern over the grim headlines of recent weeks simply caused a lot of people to lose perspective. Indisputable facts meant little — such as booming consumer goods production and soaring agricultural statistics. Meat is a good illustration. Abnormal demand has shoved up some prices but there is no shortage. Within a matter of weeks the biggest pork chop in history will be moving to market. And beef supplies are abundant.

Meat consumption is one of the best indications of a nation's living standard. Here again the figures should help wary consumers get their feet back on the ground. The average family of four in this country eats eleven pounds of meat a week which takes about five hours of the bread-winner's pay. In Russia, by way of contrast, one would have to work 35 hours to pay for the same amount of meat, if it were available.

One very good reason why we have not had serious shortages of necessities in the United States is our free competitive system under which all business, big and little, operates. Wherever there is a consumer need, it immediately becomes good business for someone to meet that need at a competitive price. While meat cannot be manufactured like automobiles and toothbrushes, meat producers and packers are compelled by the same natural laws governing other free enterprise to do their utmost to satisfy consumer demand.

These are some of the reasons why housewives in our country do not need to scramble for goods. There is more than enough of everything. Practically any other nation in the world would consider itself well off if it had half the abundance of this country.

We'll turn this column, this week, over to the mental gems of other columnists selected at random from Iowa newspapers. Here they are:

The energy wasted in worrying over things that never happen would build a strong bridge over the chasm that must be crossed. — Faye Nixon Speer, Indianola Record-Herald and Tribune.

Life is so full of contradictions.

Take the golfer, for example. He will, at the drop of a tee, use any excuse to get out on the links, pay his green fee willingly, and walk miles in pursuit of a par. But let friend wife ask him to walk two blocks to the store for a loaf of bread, and he'll kick like a steer. — M. E. Ryan, Rockwell Tribune.

One local business man remarked that he did not care for the increased business that is coming as the result of war, he had a son in the last war and would rather see a depression than the present situation. There are others who feel the same way. — E. E. Wessell, "Journalette" New London Journal.

One of the columnist's most valuable assets is a window. Some writers can stare at a bare wall and produce a wealth of reading matter, but somehow or other, I've always favored a window. — Lois F. Meyer, Thornton Enterprise.

You never realize how little you matter until you return from a month's vacation and have a neighbor say, as he sees your baggage, "Going away?" — A. W. Hamblin, "In Our Town" Bedford Times-Press.

Americans need to be taught more intelligent reading habits, but if a book is worth reading at all, it is deserving of studied attention. As for trash, under the guise of literature, let it be dumped with all haste. — Louise Freese, "The Hour Glass," Sioux City Sunday Journal.

Surprising how little interest folks manifest in politics. Of course this is an off year. But there are United States senators and members of congress to elect this fall. And guess we'll all agree that we have portentous times ahead! — W. C. Jarnagin, "Old Timer's Column," Storm Lake Pilot-Tribune.

I'm lazier when I'm blasted out of bed with man-devised methods, than if my own peculiar nature lets me rise and shine dully, all by myself. — Mary W. Koons, "In This Corner," Stuart Herald.

Isn't it strange that a new hat will do for a woman's morale what it takes a new automobile to do for a man's? — L. Dale Ahern, "People and Places," Des Moines Public Opinion.

Money behaves the most peculiarly of any commodity. It dribbles in at a snail's pace but it departs with a rush that may be best described as breathtaking and jet-propelled. — Paul R. Baumgardner, "Water Over the Dam," Charles City Press.

Vacation is that glorious gypsy period when you are free to go anywhere your wife chooses. — Carl L. Hodendorf, "Main Street Musings," North English Record.

We can't help but observe that those persons who appear complacent have either finished raising their children or don't intend to get involved in the process. — R. V. Fischer, "The Editor Speaks Up," Green Record.

Conservation District News

A conservation group meeting was held on the George and Harold Faseler farm northwest of Yancey, Friday, Sept. 8. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss soils, and soil and water conservation practices recommended for this area. N. J. Wilson, supervisor, and SCS personnel led the discussion in this meeting.

Farmers and ranchers in this group making application for assistance through the district are Harold and George Faseler, Lucian Ward, Ed Martin, S. I. DuBoise, Emmet Berry, E. E. Wilson, Roy Wilson, George Wilson, W. R. Miller, Ray W. Ward, Mrs. Bettie N. Tullock and Olen Brieden, all of Yancey.

The above co-operators will be assisted in setting up and establishing a conservation plan on their land by the district on 8,182 acres of rangeland and 1,872 acres of cropland.

Otto Reitzer reports that the use of peas and phosphate in his crop rotation along with other recommended practices have doubled the yield of corn on his land. Joe Turner of the Pearson Neighbor Group reported that he improved his soil with Hubam clover along with having very good grazing for his dairy cattle. He also reported after having a crop of clover on his land, the water went into the soil instead of running off, carrying with it the good topsoil.

Co-operators are getting ready to plant a large acreage of hubam clover, Dixie wonder peas, hairy vetch and other fall seeded legumes during September, October and November.

Earl Balzen of the Upper Quihi Group, Henry Lindeburg of the Quihi Group, Arthur Nester of the Kinchela Prairie Group, and Otto Reitzer of the Yancey Group reported good results with the summer legume, Guar, as a soil building crop. Harrison Wilson of the South Yancey Group reports that he has 52 acres of Guar up to a good stand now. Ash Gilliam is working on two diversion terraces and building new terraces along with improving old terraces on his farm north of Hondo.

Grass plantings are being made on a number of co-operator's farms over the district. Ernest Bendele completed seeding 18 acres of King Ranch bluestem on his place in the Upper Quihi Group. Edgar Stiegler seeded ten acres of grass for seed production. The grasses seeded were K. R. bluestem, slender grama, side-oats grama, Lehmann's lovegrass, and little bluestem. Louis Haas seeded six acres of K. R. bluestem, slender grama and Lehmann's lovegrass.

Alex Conrad, Robert Riff and Bonnar Carl reported a harvest of something over 12,000 pounds of hubam clover seed from their past clover crop.

J. B. Chadwick seeded three acres to K. R. bluestem and side-oats grama grass on his ranch southwest of Hondo.

Co-operators are reporting good results in soil and water conservation along with increased crop yields through the use of crop residue turned into the topsoil, planting of legumes with phosphate applied before or at the time of seeding legumes.

Pork Chops Take to Creole Sauce (See Recipes Below)

Hearty Meat Dishes

FALL'S THE SEASON with the crisp, cool mornings, splashes of red and yellow on the tree tops, the back to school parade, football games and, of course, bigger and better appetites!

It's time to start thinking of those bigger and heartier meals, those which are built around stick-to-the-ribs quality like meats. Our recipes in the column today borrow seasoning tricks from abroad as well as from regional cooks. No matter what kinds of foods please the family, these are bound to be a success because they're so extra good.

HERE'S AN American version of a famous Italian dish that's very popular among folks in this country because it's nicely seasoned. The list of ingredients is rather long, but the dish is not difficult to prepare. Serve with crisp French bread and a tossed green salad, and you'll have a meal to repeat often because it's truly special.

Veal Scallopini

(Serves 6)
1½ pounds veal steak, cut ½ inch thick
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
½ cup salad oil
½ cup lemon juice
1 clove garlic
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon sugar
½ cup flour
½ cup shortening
1 medium onion, sliced thin
1 green pepper, cut in strips can (10 ounce) chicken bouillon
½ pound mushrooms
1 tablespoon butter
6 pimiento olives, sliced

Cut veal into serving pieces. Make sauce by combining salt, paprika, oil, lemon juice, garlic, mustard, nutmeg and sugar. Beat thoroughly. Lay veal flat in baking pan and pour sauce over it. Turn meat to coat with sauce. Let stand for 15 minutes. Remove garlic. Lift veal from sauce and dip into flour. Brown in heated shortening in skillet. Add onion and green pepper. Combine bouillon and remainder of sauce and pour over veal. Cover and cook slowly until veal is tender, about 40 minutes. Clean and slice mushrooms. Brown lightly in butter. Add mushrooms and olives to veal, bastarding meat as you add them. Cook for five minutes longer. Serve veal with sauce.

FROM NEW ENGLAND comes a full-of-flavor pot roast. Try it for a hearty meal with fluffy mashed potatoes, cole slaw salad with sour cream dressing and fruit cobbler.

Yankee Pot Roast

(Serves 8)
3-4 pound pot roast of beef
3 tablespoons lard or meat drippings
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ cup sliced onions
2 tablespoons water
1 minced, garlic clove
8 peppercorns
½ cup vinegar
In a heavy covered kettle, melt

Good Flavors Make Favorites of Simple Foods

If the family shows signs of getting weary of chocolate pudding, try serving it with coffee-flavored custard sauce. You may add instant coffee to the sauce, or make it with part of the liquid, leftover coffee.

Cream cheese and soft maple sugar make a delightfully different spread for lunch box sandwiches or for dainty tea time snacks. A nut bread with this spread is certain to bring calls for seconds.

lard. Add roast and brown slowly and thoroughly on all sides, allowing about 30 minutes for the process. When browned, add salt, pepper, onions and water. Simmer three to four hours slowly on low heat until meat is tender. About 45 minutes before meat is tender, add garlic, peppercorns and vinegar. When meat is tender, remove it to hot platter and make gravy from drippings.

FROM DOWN SOUTH comes the recipe for these pork chops which are served with rice and creole sauce. The menu can be rounded out with mixed green salad with French dressing to which a little curry is added, crusty rolls and an apricot whip with custard sauce.

Pork Chops a la Dixie (Serves 6)

6 loin or rib chops,
cut 1-inch thick
Salt and pepper

In hot frying pan, brown chops slowly and thoroughly. Season chops with salt and pepper. Add creole sauce and cover; cook slowly until tender, about one hour. Serve with fluffy rice and a sauce. Creole Sauce: Heat together 2 cups tomato juice, 1½ tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, dash of tabasco sauce, 1 teaspoon lemon juice and ½ cup chopped green pepper.

RAGOUT is the French word for stew, and here is the glorified version inspired by that country.

Ragout de Veau

(Serves 6)

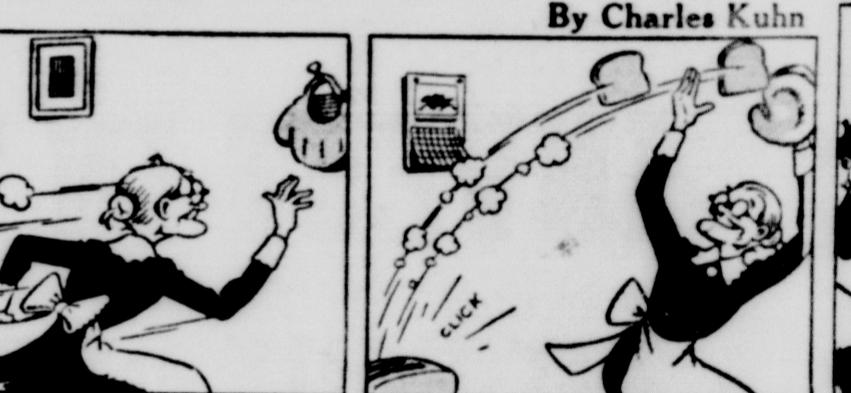

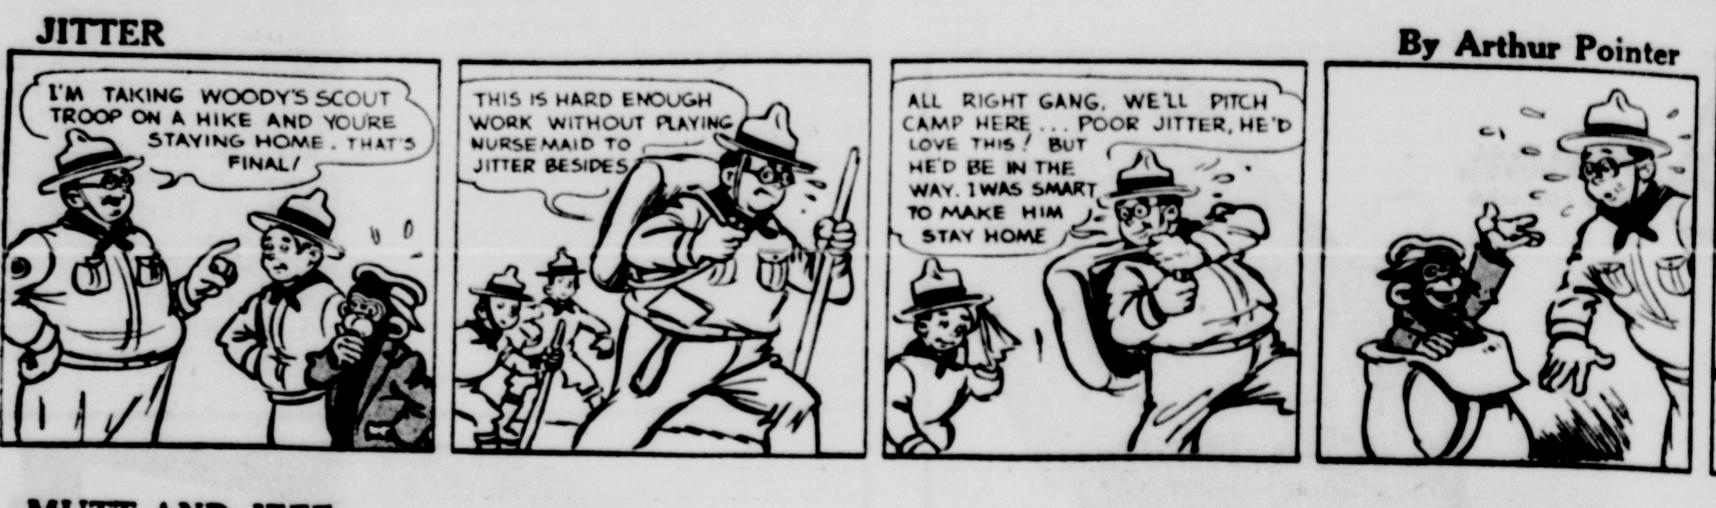

2 slices bacon
1 large onion, sliced
3 green onions, chopped
3 tablespoons butter or substitute
2 pounds boneless veal, cut in 1½ inch cubes
2 tablespoons flour
1½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon oregano
½ cup water
1 cup sour cream
Parsley and chives, chopped

Cut bacon into one-inch pieces. Cook and stir in heavy skillet until lightly cooked but not brown. Add onions and butter. Cook and stir until onions are cooked but not brown. Dip veal in flour mixed with salt, pepper and oregano. Add to skillet and brown. Add water; cover and simmer for an hour, being careful not to burn. When veal is fork tender, push to one side. Stir sour cream into drippings. Stir all ingredients together, cover and heat for 15 minutes to blend flavors.

Several sprigs of parsley, snipped with scissors and added to the cream sauce for creamed chicken in a casserole will add lots of color and fine flavor to it.

For those cubed or minute steaks which you broil or pan-broil, add a sauce made of equal parts of melted butter and chili sauce. No cooking needed.

In addition to just plain bananas and orange sections with coconut for ambrosia desserts, add some canned fruit cocktail also, and you'll multiply flavor and color.

Donald Culross Peattie's recent comment in the Reader's Digest on the early history of Castroville has brought renewed interest in Julia Nott Waugh's book on "Castro-Ville and Henry Castro, Empresario." Published in 1934 after extensive research which did not stop with stories by colony descendants, newspaper files and Castro diary, but included a trip to France to the Bayonne District of Castro's ancestors and even to the French Foreign Office for records.

Then, as now, Russia was grabbing for more territory and had the world in a turmoil. The Crimean war was raging and England and France, as allied forces, were laying siege to Sevastopol. A paragraph comments as follows:

"In the Crimea, as well as elsewhere, nothing whatever of importance appears to have transpired since the departure of the Asia. Before Sevastopol, the Allies are reported to have made but little progress, and the general condition of affairs is reported unchanged."

Almost a full column in small type — enough to monopolize our allotted space — quotes from a war-correspondent's letter in the London Times from the seat of war; but from its recital of the trickery of the Russian enemy, let's turn to this paean of patriotism:

Tribute of General Afection

"Gen. Cass in an oration delivered on the 4th ult. gave vent to the following beautiful outburst of feeling to his beloved native land. Speaking of the Federal Government, he said:

"It has protected me and mine from external aggression and from internal violence; and by its noble equality, joined to the undeserved favor of my fellow-citizens, it has opened to me positions of public honor and confidence to which the circumstances of my youth gave me no right to look forward, and which my brightest day-dreams, that sometimes came to soften the harsh realities of a frontier struggle, never even presented to my imagination; and what it has done to me it has offered to all. Well, then, may I be proud to acknowledge the hold it possesses upon my gratitude and affection, and the intensity of the feeling of attachment with which I measure it in my heart. My personal interest in it, indeed is fast passing away. Of that I am sufficiently warned by the long period during which I have secured its protection. But I pray not less earnestly for its preservation, for when, in the providence of God, my connection with it shall be dissolved, with the dissolution of all earthly ties I can leave to those who are dearest to me no legacy more precious than their share in its enjoyment."

Back to the advertisements, here are two that will be of interest:

Seco Land For Sale

For Sale — 640 acres valuable Land, situated immediately on the Seco Creek, and within a few miles of the town of D' Hanis. This is a first-class tract of land, watered by the Seco stream, and well timbered with musquit and post oak. Terms reasonable. 37-4t. E. F. Gilbert.

And here is the other:

Runaway Negro

Taken up and committed to jail of Gillespie County, on the 7th of August, a negro man who says his name is March, and belonging to Jerome de Blanc, living in Liberty County, five miles west of the town of Liberty. Said boy is about 45 to 50 years old, 5 feet 5 inches high copper colored, and has the thumb and the first finger on the right hand crippled.

The owner of said negro is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take him, or he will be sold as the law directs.

Louis Weiss,

Sheriff of Gillespie County Fredericksburg, Aug. 10, '55.

37-4t.

And from this "sordid" business, let's turn to a specimen of the humor of the times.

No doubt most newspaper readers remember the story about the horned frog that slept so many years sealed up in the Eastland (we think it was) courthouse corner stone and when released at the tearing down of the building, promptly awoke into activity and lived out a horned frog's natural life?

Well, we hate to spoil a good story, but here is where the clever young news man "swiped" the idea.

At the bottom of the first column on the front page of the old paper from which we are quoting, we read:

"A Venerable Toad. — In the operation of 'Broulery's Stone Dressing Machine,' at the shop of Peleg Rose & Co., one day last week, while taking off the surface of a slab of Conn. river or brown stone, a toad about three inches long was cut out of limbo. He was imbedded in the stone, and as the platform with the stone passed from under the cutters he jumped once more into the breathing world, the cutters having taken the stone off his back and bruised the antediluvian himself, somewhat. — Our Peleg, who stood looking on was deeply impressed, and being a victim of the 'K. N. Pepper' mania broke out as follows:

'U ole tud! What in thunder hev u

Ben a doink of for this ever so long

In this hear great stun? Ante u suprys

And over kum in ure pheelinks to notice the Changis as has been a goink on ever sens

U went to bed, ole lappiderry? Wot's ure vues of pollyticks, u may hev

Retyred afor the tower of Bayble was bilt,

Ef so u doant no nothink about Africin

Slavery, witch is considerabull of a feetyur in Ower pollytik. Praps ure dry?

Spouse u

Air, wot u goin to dew about it? U can't Get nothink hear on akownt of the Mane Los.'

"Here the noise of the machinery drowned the young man's voice, and the remainder of his 'sweetness' was 'wasted on desert air'."

This was less than six years before the breaking out of the Civil war, and still "Africin Slavery" shared public interest with "wot ure goin to do about it if ure dry!"

Thus we might quote until we reprint the entire contents of this ancient sheet, but this should be sufficient to give you a glimpse both of frontier life in our own present local and the affairs of the world at large as reflected by the newspaper as of the year 1855, week of August 18th.

Reports From Washington

WASHINGTON — By a star-spangled majority the House passed the Wood bill for Communists registration. This is a non-partisan — an American — bill for the protection and defense of this country.

While American men, with their backs to the sea, are fighting thousands of miles from home for the avowed purpose of defending human liberty, stopping aggression, and preventing the spread of Communism in South Korea, the majority in Congress deemed it necessary to take action to protect the United States from enemies within its borders.

This measure does not outlaw, or make a crime, membership in the Communist Party. It does require, however, registration of Communist Party members and their active organizations. It requires Communist organizations to furnish a list of officers and members along with other information. It denies passports to Communists and to members of Communist action organizations. The bill denies Communists' procuring of classified material. It denies them government employment in non-elective offices, appointed positions within the government, and employment in defense plants. In short, it denies Communists those benefits which were either created or conferred by the government.

This is not a bill passed in panic or passion. For months the House Un-American Activities Committee gave the action earnest and careful consideration. The Committee voted the bill unanimously. This bill is based on legislation passing the House two years ago, but it didn't pass the Senate then.

Much has been said about those holding membership in the Communist Party possibly losing their civil rights. It is difficult to imagine one naive enough to believe the Communist Party is a political organization in the accepted sense. It is, in fact, an international conspiracy where each individual performs duties and obligations set forth by the men in the Kremlin.

Certainly, it in no way fulfills our founding fathers' concept of a political party. Communist Party members have no allegiance to the United States, to our institutions or ideals. It is a Party which will not rely on active changes in Government by constitutional methods, by normal elections, or by education. We are dealing with a political organization which advocates the use of force, if necessary, to accomplish its purposes.

Some contend this bill violates freedom of speech and of the press, guaranteed by the first amendment. Undoubtedly its effect will be to curtail, insofar as words or writing, attempts to further in this country the interest of a foreign power as against the best interest of this country. It is, however, well recognized in a long line of decisions that freedom of speech and of the press do not mean unbridled license to preach or publish any doctrine or contention, no matter how vicious, harmful or subversive.

Mr. Justice Holmes said in Schenck against United States:

"We admit that in many places and in ordinary times the defendants in saying all that was said in the circular would have been within their constitutional rights: But the character of every act depends upon the circumstances in which it is done. The most stringent protection of free speech would not protect a man in falsely shouting 'Fire' in a theater and causing a panic. The question in every case is whether the words used are used in such circumstances and are of such a nature as to create a clear and present danger that they will bring about the substantive evils that Congress has a right to prevent."

Thus I believe this bill to be thoroughly within the language of the Courts and within the four walls of the Constitution by providing a method or means to protect our Government against violent overthrow.

The passage of this bill is merely one of the steps toward destroying Communism and overcoming its dangers in this country. But we must not let anything lull us into a sense of security. We must continue to be alert to the dangers of Communism. Let us not be lulled into a sense of security because of the relatively small numbers of Communist Party members in the U. S. In 1946 FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover spoke to the American Legion Convention in San Francisco, and said:

"The fact that the Communist Party in the United States claims some 100,000 members has lulled many Americans into a feeling of false complacency. I would not be concerned if we were only dealing with only 100,000 Communists. The Communists themselves boast that for every party member there are 10 others ready to do the party's work. These include their satellites, their fellow travelers, and their so-called progressive and phony liberal allies. They have maneuvered themselves into position where a few Communist control the destinies of hundreds who are either willing to be led, or have been duped into obeying the dictates of others."

This bill when passed will enable us through the FBI, in great measure, to keep a better check upon the members of the Communist Party in this country. This is only part of the fight and nothing short of an all out continuing fight will do the job. Adios.

The Seco Philosopher

J. A. WANTS ALL WARS IN SAME PLACE—CAN'T REMEMBER NAMES

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is getting confused on the war situation, but he isn't by himself. Dear editor:

I picked up a newspaper that blew out of a truck which passed my house yesterday afternoon, blowin' dust all over the place, as far as I'm concerned roads are fine things but it would suit me all right if people used some other ones beside the one in front of my house, ought to be other places. J. A.

they'd as soon go by as my house, and after the dust settled I went down to the pasture and sat under a tree and after I got through dozin' read the paper to catch up on the news.

I don't like to complain, but it seems to me the Korean war is comin' too close to the last war, I ain't got through learnin' the geography from the last one yet, understand some folks ain't even used up the sugar and razor blades yet they hoarded up in the last one.

In fact, I went through the last two wars without ever even hearin' of Korea and as far as I can tell I was gettin' along all right without knowin' about it. Understand, I think the war is necessary, rather stop Russia in her front yard than ours, but it's the geography that bothers me. Why don't they arrange to have wars in the same place? In the last war I got where I could pronounce Tunisia, Crete, Okinawa, etc., but as far as I'm concerned that's enough geography for one lifetime, but now we got Korea, Formosa, Pohang, Taegu, Pusan, Hyonpung, Hyopthon, I tell you, I don't believe my nervous system can stand up to all this geography.

You take a man after a hard day's work, he comes home to supper and his wife questions him a little too closely on how much he got plowed and mentions half a dozen things that need fixin' around the place and adds that some of her relatives is comin' for a visit, and then he sits down to a pleasant evening of readin' the paper and runs into a whole string of unpronounceable, out-of-the-way places, it ruins the rest of the day.

As far as I'm concerned, they can bomb Russia in the morning and get this thing over with. Two or three wars is about all a man can stand in one lifetime. I'm willin' to make a sacrifice and stay ignorant if it'll mean world peace.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Before you buy a Tractor...

MAKE THIS SIMPLE TEST:

Before you buy a tractor, take a pencil and "design" your own on paper. jot down the type and size you need, the equipment required. List everything that contributes to economy, dependability, long life, and ease of handling. Then, look over the field—get the facts—and select the tractor that comes closest to matching those specifications. It's almost certain your choice will be a John Deere with its famous, exclusive two-cylinder engine.

In the first place, John Deere two-cylinder engine design is unmatched in simplicity. Greater dependability and longer life are direct advantages of this simplicity. Operation costs are less, too, because John Deere two-cylinder engine design is especially adapted to burning the low-cost, money-saving fuels.

There's a variety of up-to-the-minute models and power sizes from which to choose. Let us tell you more about these famous two-cylinder tractors.

Better Buy Buick!

YOU CAN SEE here how smart it is—don't have to be told that it's the most quickly identified car on the road today.

You probably know that the engine under that broad bonnet is a Fireball straight-eight valve-in-head engine and a lively stepper in any company.

You can check the abundance of its room by the simple expedient of taking the family and trying out its spaciousness at the nearest Buick dealer's—and a very few minutes on the open road will satisfy you that all-coil springing, low-pressure tires and Buick's torque-tube drive really do produce a ride that is matchless for its soft comfort.

BUT RIGHT NOW, it may be that the money angle is the thing uppermost in your mind, and on that we'd like to make two points:

All our records go to show that this is the most economical Buick ever built. It is easy on gas, on oil, on tires, on upkeep.

And if you choose it with

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Dynaflow Drive,* it immediately eliminates all chance of friction-clutch repair and replacement—not to mention greatly reducing rear-axle and transmission maintenance.

Best of all, your initial outlay is a highly favorable one—whatever Buick you buy. For these brawny straight-eights—built rugged and solid for durable service—are priced at a level that makes them a standout buy in any price class.
